ARE YOU BEING CALLED?

by: Marcellino D'Ambrosio, PH.D - Catholic Exchange

Nothing about the grammar contained in Scripture makes missions sound optional. Throughout the Bible we are directed by God to participate in the global spread of His gospel. Look at the commands associated with missions texts: declare His glory among the nations (Ps 96:3), go and make disciples of all nations (Mat 28:19), you will be My witnesses to the end of the earth (Acts 1:8), go into the world and proclaim (Ma 16:15), say among the nations (Ps 96:10), go to the land I will show you (Acts 12:1), and go from your country (Gen 12:1). What part of those passages sounds optional? Might you be called to missions? No, you are commanded to participate in missions.

The shepherd's sheep have been scattered throughout the world. He has called us to find them and tell them it is time to come home. David Sitton stated, "Nowhere in Scripture is a mysterious (supernatural) call a prerequisite before we can respond to the Great Commission." Christians worship a God who requires unwavering obedience and calls us to participate in a mission that warrants extreme commitment.

Christ started His earthly ministry by calling His disciples to be fishers of men and ended with the instruction to go, and make disciples. Evangelism and global missions were never intended only for disciples who are seminary trained or exceptional orators. All disciples of Christ are called to make disciples for Christ who make disciples for Christ.

Discerning Your Call:

Must then all Christians sell all they own and move to a faraway land? No. Do not interpret this article as an attempt to guilt all Christian disciples onto the mission field. Missions is indeed a compulsory activity for all Christians, done out of a desire to glorify our Lord. How that is acted out in your life is between you and your Savior.

David Platt said, "As followers of Christ, we are all called to be a part of a grand, global mission." Are you called to go, send, or pray? That is the question you must answer. Praying for missionaries, financially supporting missions, or sharing the gospel cross-culturally, that is how we obey our Father.

You may not be called to go, but you are certainly called to pray for or support God's Great Commission. Every Christian is a participant. If God is not currently calling you to serve Him as a cross-cultural missionary please pray fervently for those He has called. Those who are called to pray provide the fuel on the bonfire that is lit by those who are called to go.

Not every Christian is called to leave the country. There are poor, sick, and unsaved everywhere. Service is mandatory, location varies. R.C. Sproul tells us, "We are called to be children of the light, to set forth the light of Christ to this dying world around us." The call to missions has more to do with the condition of our heart than it does the location of our feet.

Obedying Your Call:

Doctor, teacher, or janitor is not your calling. Those are the means God has given to provide His mercy and love to others. That's your calling. Our talent is less relevant than how we use it when called upon by the One who gave it to us.

If you are sitting around and waiting for God's "call" to figure out how you were intended to serve the Lord, wait no longer. You have already been called, and commanded to aid in the spread of God's eternal truth to all nations. Read your Bible and obey that which God has already commanded.

Every person who calls themselves a disciple of Christ is commanded to participate in God's mission to call the nations to Himself. Our objective in the church is to make disciples for Jesus Christ and teach them to make disciples.

Too frequently we give Jesus our unenthusiastic affiliation and token obedience. It is our absolute devotion and complete sacrifice He merits. God is worthy of sacrifice and He is calling His people to give all they have, even lay down their lives, so His gospel can reach the world.

PRAYER FOR

A Spirit OF Service

Dear Loving Lord,
You sent Your Son to serve.

You sent Him to give his life for me.

Let your Spirit awaken
in me the same
Spirit of service.

Let me not look for a position of gain, instead show me how to let others go before me.

Make me meek and humble
so I too can give my life
willfully, obediently, and faithfully. In Jesus' name,
Amen.

"We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard." - Acts 4:20

Those who are new to our parish, or have been attending mass without being registered, we need your help in staying organized and planning for our future needs. If you have not received a welcome letter, please call the parish office to confirm your registration. All new parishioners or those interested in registering in our parish, are invited to attend the New Parishioner Orientation on Sunday, February 13, 2022 after the 11:15am Mass.

Registering at St. John XXIII is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community. Please let the parish office know your email address or you can even update it on the parish website: www.johnxxiii.net

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate marriage, baptisms or serve as sponsors for confirmation or baptism, request a letter stating that they are parishioners. To receive such a letter, you must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent and treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory basket.

Planning Your Will

Remember St. John XXIII

A bequest is a wonderful way to express gratitude to God for a lifetime of blessings! The gift you give establishes a lasting legacy of love for others by helping the Church to continue our Catholic heritage through its many ministries.

PLEASE NOTE: Leaving money to the Parish in your will is not assessed and 100% goes to the parish.

The following is possible wording for including a bequest in your will:

"I bequeath the greater of $_____ or _____% of the residue of my estate to Bishop Frank J. Dewane, (or his successor), Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida, a corporation sole, whose principal office is located at 1000 Pinebrook Rd., Venice, FL 34285, For the benefit of St. John XXIII Catholic Parish, in Fort Myers, Inc."

The actual wording in your will should be determined by you and your attorney.

For more information, questions, or wish to consider a gift annuity or trust for St. John XXIII Catholic Church, then please email:

Holly Atkins: holly@johnxxiii.net

ENDOWMENT FUND

For Good, For God, Forever

St. John XXIII now has an endowment fund with the Catholic Community Foundation, which is designed to help provide long-term sustainability for our parish far beyond our lifetimes.

The principal of the endowment fund remains intact, while a portion of the investment earnings are used to support the parish.

Please consider supporting the endowment fund or establishing your own fund to benefit St. John XXIII. For more information email our parish office manager, Holly Atkins: holly@johnxxiii.net

Donors give THROUGH, not to the FOUNDATION

The Catholic Community Foundation helps create lasting Catholic legacies by working with you to provide long-term support and sustainability to the Catholic entities and programs about which you care most, like St. John XXIII Parish. The foundation ensures that your gifts will always be used in the manner you intended and is the only community foundation in Southwest Florida that invests all gifts in alignment with the teachings our Catholic faith.

The Catholic Community Foundation offers a wide range of gifting options including endowment/scholarship funds, charitable gift annuities, donor advised funds and more. The foundation can also help you coordinate a bequest of other estate gifts through your will or trust.

WHAT?

NO Diapers?

How do ABORTIONS and DIAPERS relate?

The most common reason given for why abortion is considered for someone facing an unplanned pregnancy is "financial". During the early days of the pandemic, that became nearly the only reason we heard as we met with those facing such a circumstance.

Diapers represent an essential need and one of the largest practical, ongoing expenses new parents face with a newborn baby. Walking the diaper aisle will shock you when you consider the impact of this cost for new parents.

Verity can HELP!

We provide our parents with a supply of diapers periodically to ease the financial burden.

Our supplies are very low in the following sizes:

- Newborn
- Larger sizes: 4 - 5 - 6

You can help, and there are a few options:

1. Buy diapers and drop them off at Verity.
2. Purchase a gift card to Walmart or Target and mail it or drop it off at Verity. We will do the shopping for you!
3. Order diapers on Amazon or other online retailer and have them delivered to Verity.

Deacon Rich Klish

by: Maureen Dombrowski

Marking the 150th Anniversary of St. Joseph being declared patron of the universal church, Pope Francis proclaimed a year long celebration dedicated to the foster father of Jesus. Each month during this special year, we will feature an interview with a member of the St. John XXIII parish whose life reflects the virtues and characteristics of St. Joseph.

LITANY OF ST. JOSEPH

“St. Joseph, Defender of Christ, pray for us.”

“Mirror of Patience, pray for us.”

“Glory of Domestic Life, pray for us.”

“Pillar of Families, pray for us.”

“Protector of the Church, pray for us.”

DEACON RICH,

devoted husband of 52 years, father of three daughters, veteran, and Thrift Store volunteer, admires the role St. Joseph played as “servant to Mary and Jesus.” He also embraces this role as servant leader in our parish and community.

As a deacon he has helped with annulment, tuition, and emergency assistance interviews. He baptizes, preaches, and occasionally presides at weddings. He also enjoys arranging parish movie nights for adults and families. He serves as a member of the honor guard: HOPE and arranges for veterans who are entering hospice care.

Before COVID, he distributed communion at Gulf Coast Hospital and volunteered in the media center at Treeline Elementary School. In addition, he was involved in PACE, a center that provides a place to socialize for the elderly who are living at home.

Rich is not the only member of his family devoted to service. His wife Barbara and 97-year-old mother-in-law Dorothy, both are active members of Craftie Ladies and volunteer at our Thrift Store. They may be found preparing food for the needy at St. Martin de Porres every week.

Rich and his family “enjoy helping and serving others, having a feeling of satisfaction being closer to people and God.” Rich feels that the Church supports them in their efforts through “the sacraments and by giving them comfort in times of loss. The Church challenges us and asks us to be better. It provides us opportunities to grow and to become the best versions of ourselves.” During his 20 years as a deacon, Rich finds great hope in the fact that the Church “both comforts and challenges us.”
