What is TRINITY SUNDAY?

Trinity Sunday is the first Sunday after Pentecost to honor the Holy Trinity: the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Although the word “trinity” does not appear in Scripture, it is taught in Matthew 28:18-20 and 2 Corinthians 13:14 (and many other biblical passages). The concept of the trinity can never be completely understood or rationalized, but it is clearly taught in Scripture. Understanding of all scriptural doctrine is by faith which comes through the work of the Holy Spirit; therefore, it is appropriate that this mystery is celebrated the first Sunday after Pentecost, when the outpouring of the Holy Spirit first occurred.

On Trinity Sunday, the Christian Church ponders with joy and thanksgiving what the Father, Son and Holy Spirit have done to accomplish the salvation of sinful humanity. It is brought to remembrance how Christians should respond to the love God has shown us, praising Him and giving Him glory. We remember the Father as our Creator, the Son as our Savior and the Holy Spirit as our Comforter. Scriptural readings for the Trinity Sunday ceremony may include Psalm 8, beginning and ending with, “Oh Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.” Second Corinthians 13:11-13 appeals to believers to aim for perfection and live in peace, ending with the prayer that the grace of Christ Jesus, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all, including again the commission Jesus left for believers in Matthew 28:16-20.

In the Eastern Orthodox and Eastern Catholic churches, the Sunday of Pentecost itself is called Trinity Sunday (the Sunday after Pentecost is All Saints Sunday). The Monday after Pentecost is called Monday of the Holy Spirit, and the next day is called the Third Day of the Trinity. Though liturgical colors are not as fixed in the Eastern practice (normally there are simply “festive” colors and “somber” or Lenten colors), in some churches, green is used for Pentecost and its Afterfeast.

Today, Trinity Sunday is to explain, to the best of man’s ability, the clues written in Scripture to guide us to a fuller understanding of our triune God. The Father is God from the beginning (John 1:1); Jesus revealed Himself as equal to the Father in John 10:30, “I and the Father are one.” Together, they sent the Holy Spirit (John 14:26). “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19).

“With our eyes fixed on Jesus and His merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity....Everything in Him speaks of mercy. Nothing in Him is devoid of compassion.”

- POPE FRANCIS

PRAYER TO THE HOLY TRINITY

*Glory be to the Father who,
by His almighty power,
created me in His image
and likeness.*

Glory be to the Son who, by His love delivered me from my frustrations and opened the gates of heaven for me.

*Glory be to the Holy Spirit who, by His mercy,
sanctified me and continues
this sanctification by the graces I receive daily from His infinite kindness.*

Glory be to the three Persons of Trinity as They were in the beginning and as They are now and forever.

Amen.

If you have not received a welcome letter, please call the parish office to confirm your registration. All new parishioners or those interested in registering in our parish, are invited to attend the New Parishioner Orientation is this Sunday, June 12, 2022 after the 11:15am Mass.

Registering at St. John XXIII is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community. Please let the parish office know your email address or you can even update it on the parish website: www.johnxxiii.net

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate marriage, baptisms or serve as sponsors for confirmation or baptism, request a letter stating that they are parishioners. To receive such a letter, you must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent and treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory basket.

A LETTER TO God from a TEENAGER

I am thankful for You and all You have done. I look forward to what I still have coming for me in my path. I continue to learn more about You and be a follower in You. I will fill these young minds about You as they get older and learn more about Your word. I ask that they understand their purpose in life. As kids grow older, they forget their purpose. Teenagers struggle finding their purpose and question their worth. Let them feel Your love and passion You have for them.

"For God so loved the world." This is something I remind myself on a daily basis. Understanding that You loved the world so much You created me in 9 months to be a part of Your beautiful creation.

I am thankful for the opportunity I have being a teacher of Your word. I'm also thankful for the breath of life, the chance to be here and live in Your creation and know You.

I ask You to protect me and my family and watch over us as we go through our battles.

Sincerely,

Lauren (Krosley) Rost, 14

Journey to Hope by: J. Halt

False beliefs about mental illness can cause some people to hide behind a mask of fear, shame, or embarrassment. While 1 in 5 Americans live with a mental disorder, estimates indicate that nearly two-thirds of all people with a diagnosable mental illness do not seek treatment. Lack of knowledge, fear of judgment or rejection by family and friends, and discrimination are a few reasons why people with mental illness do not seek help. Mental illnesses are treatable through medication and psychosocial therapies. The Journey to Hope support group meets in order to support our loved one's recovery from mental illness/substance abuse and to offer hope to those who are searching for answers to what is often a mystifying disease. We offer education and support in a caring and confidential setting, actively partnering with NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) of Lee County and other local agencies.

PRAYER FOR SAFETY

During Hurricane Season

Through November 30

Oh God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, Oh loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

Oh Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen
