He Will Restore You - 1 Peter 5:10

by: Joanne Halt. M.A., NAMI FaithNet

Thoughts matter. A major emotional resilience builder is observing and managing thoughts to learn how we construct our inner reality. How do we choose to interpret what we see or experience? What behaviors/desires come from our attitude? What brings us guilt or shame? The former (I did a wrong) can empower behavioral change. The latter (I am defective) brings a cascade of stress chemicals, lowers emotional resilience, and actually changes our nervous system for the worse. Ever been unable to let go of regret, worry, resentment, worthlessness, and end up spiraling downward (rumination)? Managing ANTs (anxious negative thinking) is a learnable skill and a spiritual discipline. It's healthier than drinking or drugging to forget. Detaching from the belief that we are our thoughts is the first step. Attachment is destructive. Our thoughts and emotions come and go and have no substance; our eternal life in God, our true self, is changeless. Jesus said of Satan (also called The Accuser) "He is a liar...from the beginning." (Jn. 8:44). We should expect deceit from our mind. I think of Judas: his betrayal of self and God; the mental constructs and emotions that preceded his attitude toward self and others. Peter also betrayed Jesus, to a lesser degree: was guilt ridden, but stood on the promises of Jesus, managed fear, anxiety and anger; kept himself in community and chose trust. Judas could not. Judas or Peter, shame or guilt. We can call upon the Holy Spirit for direction and hope when our eyes open to our human condition and to our self-deceit. Start by being a curious non-judgmental observer of thought. Be like a mirror as they arise, just reflecting back. Disengage by bringing attention to your breath, then imagine a compassionate response to what reveals itself in thought or emotion. Be curious about reactions and open up a dialogue with your inner critic. Dispute what isn't true. Get active by moving and doing; break negative self –talk with exercise (mindful walking, tai chi, yoga), dance, sing. If ANTs seem to be winning, seek professional help. "Let nothing disturb you, nothing frighten you; all things are passing; God never changes." Teresa of Avila

PRAYER FOR

DEMENTIA AND ALZHEIMER'S

Father of all goodness, Your Son brought healing of mind and body to show that Your Kingdom is here.

*In our hour of need, we look to You,
we seek to understand Your purpose,
through Joseph, the faithful and honorable husband of Mary.*

You show us care and compassion in adversity, You give us a model of generosity and care.

We pray for those whose lives we share and who live with the knowledge of weakness, whose memory now fades, whose enjoyment of life's story is changing.

Make us aware of the needs of others, of the dignity of life at every stage, of the collective memory that we own.

*Bless those who care for the sick, who share the journey. Your Kingdom come,
Your will be done, in Your good time.
We ask this through Christ our Lord,
Amen.*

Those who are new to our parish, or have been attending mass without being registered, we need your help in staying organized and planning for our future needs. If you have not received a welcome letter, please call the parish office to confirm your registration. All new parishioners or those interested in registering in our parish, are invited to attend the New Parishioner Orientation on Sunday, May 21, 2023 after the 11:15am Mass

Registering at St. John XXIII is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community. Please let the parish office know your email address or you can even update it on the parish website: www.johnxxiii.net

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate marriage, baptisms or serve as sponsors for confirmation or baptism, request a letter stating that they are parishioners. To receive such a letter, you must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent and treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory basket.

Planning Your Will

Remember St. John XXIII

A bequest is a wonderful way to express gratitude to God for a lifetime of blessings! The gift you give establishes a lasting legacy of love for others by helping the Church to continue our Catholic heritage through its many ministries.

PLEASE NOTE: Leaving money to the Parish in your will is not assessed and 100% goes to the parish.

The following is possible wording for including a bequest in your will:

"I bequeath the greater of $_____ or _____% of the residue of my estate to Bishop Frank J. Dewane, (or his successor), Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida, a corporation sole, whose principal office is located at 1000 Pinebrook Rd., Venice, FL 34285, For the benefit of St. John XXIII Catholic Parish, in Fort Myers, Inc."

The actual wording in your will should be determined by you and your attorney.

For more information, questions, or wish to consider a gift annuity or trust for St. John XXIII Catholic Church, then please email:

Holly Atkins: holly@johnxxiii.net

You Can Make a Gift AND Receive Lifetime Payments!

When you establish a Charitable Gift Annuity, you receive an immediate tax deduction, then receive guaranteed payments for life (with a portion of your payments being tax-free). At the end of your life, the remainder of the annuity will benefit St. John XXIII Catholic Church. You can even avoid capital gains tax if you donated appreciated assets like stock.

Charitable Gift Annuities are managed by the Catholic Community Foundation and the remainder can be restricted for offertory, debt reduction, capital project, CFA, or building our parish endowment.

St. Michael and St. Bernadette

The St. John XXIII Women's Guild invites ALL WOMEN of the parish to a gathering on Saturday, May 20 from 9:00am to 12:00pm in the Parish Life Center/St. Michael and St. Bernadette. Come and join us for a light breakfast, a great speaker, and a rosary.

SESSION TOPIC: Mary, the Mother of Joy.

ABOUT DEACON JOHN:

Deacon John Gaulin was ordained in the Diocese of Buffalo in June, 2008. He served at the diocesan level as the founder and director of the Sons of St. Stephen ministry (in service to the deacons of the diocese), along with planning and running deacon convocations, and in support of some of the early transition programs designed to help parishes cope with the many diocesan organizational changes.

At the parish level, beyond the regular weekend liturgical responsibilities, Deacon John led many programs including directing the Parish Sabbatical, teaching many Adult Education programs, and heading up the parish strategic planning process. In addition, Deacon John led various activities including Divine Mercy Sunday, server and lector training, and parish merger teams.

Personally, Deacon John is married to his wife Debbie. They have two adult children, along with three grandchildren. He retired in May, 2021 and the family moved from Buffalo to Fort Myers in late 2022. They joined St. John XXIII parish last November.

NEWMAN CONNECTION

KEEP OUR YOUTH Connected TO THE CHURCH

Did you know that 80% of students stop practicing their faith at some point during college, while only 15% look for a campus ministry on their own?

The Diocese of Venice would like to support our incoming college freshmen by connecting them to Catholic organizations at the Universities they will be attending.

The Newman Connection is a data entry program that assists in this effort at the national level. We will have Newman Connection cards available at the Welcome Desk for those parents and/or grandparents who wish to fill out the card. The only information needed is the student's name, college choice and the college's city. The Campus Ministry will welcome the students and reach out to them when they arrive.

For more information visit the Newman Connection at: www.newmanconnection.com

Parenting Pointer:

Ask your family if they are willing to free themselves of digital devices (with the exception of work or school) for one full week. Experiment with human or outdoor entertainment. Secret weapon: Tell your child it would make a great Mother's Day gift.

BANKING

EASY: If we can get the banks to shift, that would probably have more global impact than getting Congress to shift." (Bill McKibben) To find out how banking and pollution are connected read about Third Act: <https://thirdact.org/>

CHALLENGING: Find out if your bank has large investments in fossil fuels. JPMorgan Chase, Bank of America, Citibank, and Wells Fargo are among the top contenders. Act on this information.

Marriage Moment:

Some couples learn about how to have a successful marriage from their own parents. Some take classes, get counseling, or are just lucky. Some life lessons also come from people who have divorced. Do you know anyone who has learned marriage the hard way? Listen to them.

MILITARY APPRECIATION MONTH

It's officially May, which means it's also National Military Appreciation Month: an excellent time to honor both active and former members of our armed forces. To help do our part to thank those in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marines, Space Force, National Guard and beyond, we've rounded up more than 30 awesome military discounts available from the likes of Nike, Samsung and more.

What is National Military Appreciation Month?

Officially recognized by Congress in 1999, National Military Appreciation Month includes several key dates pertaining to our soldiers: Loyalty Day, Military Spouse Appreciation Day, VE Day, Armed Forces Day and of course, Memorial Day.

Many of the military discounts found should extend far beyond these calendar dates, however, so these hard-working members of our community can get their thanks all year long. Keep in mind that some of the sites may require you to confirm your eligibility through third-party sites, but nabbing these exclusive discounts is still as easy as one, two, three.

Sign up for Discounts:

Join Military.com as we honor the service and sacrifice of members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marines, Space Force and National Guard as well as the contribution of their spouses.

Congress designated May as National Military Appreciation Month in 1999 to ensure the nation was given the chance to publicly show their appreciation for troops past and present.
