Feast of the ASCENSION of the Lord

"As He blessed them He parted from them and was taken up to heaven.

- LUKE 24:51

THE JOURNEY HOME

by: Constance T. Hull - Catholic Exchange

The Solemnity of the Ascension of Our Lord oftentimes is an understated event in the Church's liturgical year. We profess the reality of this historical and supernatural event each Sunday as we profess the Creed. It is a significant event, in fact, it is the climax before He sends the Paraclete. In returning to the Father, Jesus leads us into the Father's presence and forever tears the veil dividing mankind from God. It is through the Ascension in light of the Paschal Mystery that we are able to go home. Our Lord, now sitting at the right hand of the Father, in His glorified incarnate form, brings us to the Father. We are now able to enter into the Heavenly sanctuary and behold the beatific vision at the end of our holy lives.

The Ascension Reminds us that this is Not our Home:

In the glory, awe, mystery, and joy of the Resurrection we celebrate the gift of our salvation. We have been redeemed in Christ. The Lord's Ascension reminds us that earth is our temporary home. We are sojourners with our gaze fixed on the faraway land. We seek the white shores, the place of peace, eternity with our Beloved. Christ has paved the way for us and He calls each one of us to follow Him back to the Father, so that we may truly rest in the love of the Most Holy Trinity. We are now able to follow Christ back to our permanent home in Heaven. We too are called to return to the Father.

Christ Intercedes for us Through our Joys and Sorrows:

The path home is an arduous journey. In our struggle to become holy through God's grace, we will constantly stumble and begin again. The spiritual life is a constant beginning again. St. Francis de Sales reminds us: "It is right that we should begin again every day. There is no better way to complete the spiritual life than to be ever beginning it over again." In the seemingly mundane experiences of daily life, we can become overburdened and frustrated with our failures in the spiritual life. In reality, Our Lord now sits at the right hand of the Father interceding on our behalf constantly. Through His grace, we are able to make progress. This progress may not even be obvious to us each day, but bit by bit we continue on the journey home. The point is to begin again and keep our eyes fixed on Christ and His desire to draw us to Him.

We Always Live in Hope:

The Ascension is cause of great joy and hope. The Ascension points to Christ's kingship and the renewal of the world. We now wait in joyful hope for His glorious return. In a world marred by sin, pain, and suffering we are able to look in hope to our Heavenly home and the end of time. When we read the news, and see violence, pain, suffering, or when we ourselves experience sorrow and suffering, we can look in hope as the Apostles did when Our Lord returned to the Father at the Ascension. It is because Christ now reigns at the right hand of the Father that we can stand firmly in hope, faith, peace, and charity as the storms of this life rage on around us. The battle is won!

This hope does not take us away from our duty to bring the world into conformation with the Most Holy Trinity. It is precisely because we are redeemed and live in the hope of Christ that we must make "disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19) and bring others to the Eucharistic banquet. We live in an age when many people live in despair and loneliness. They do not know they are made for Heaven. They do not know the joy of Christ and the hope of the Paschal Mystery. It is on this great Solemnity that we once more look to Heaven in hope, pray for the strength to persevere on the journey home, and bring others along the pilgrim way.

Those who are new to our parish, or have been attending mass without being registered, we need your help in staying organized and planning for our future needs. If you have not received a welcome letter, please call the parish office to confirm your registration. All new parishioners or those interested in registering in our parish, are invited to attend the New Parishioner Orientation this Sunday, May, 21, 2023 after the 11:15am Mass

Registering at St. John XXIII is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community. Please let the parish office know your email address or you can even update it on the parish website: www.johnxxiii.net

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate marriage, baptisms or serve as sponsors for confirmation or baptism, request a letter stating that they are parishioners. To receive such a letter, you must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent and treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory basket.

We would like to thank our 60 April Bingo Players for their generosity to make this possible. Our Mother's Home provides a safe and nurturing environment for young mom's in foster care and their babies. This unique home is the only one of it's kind in Southwest Florida. They have a 90% success rate of preserving families, transitioning foster mothers to self-sufficiency and saving the lives of children by avoiding their re-entry into foster care.

Over the last years, more than 200 mothers and their children have benefited from Our Mother's Home Mentored Living Program. For more information: info@ourmothershome.org

Craftie Ladies

What's New?

The Craftie Ladies had a busy month saying goodbye to our snowbird members.

The Rosary Ministry made 96 beautiful rosaries for First Communion.

Our fellow crafter, Carolyn, taught those interested in a card making class. We had a fun time learning a new craft together with an excellent instructor.

Fifty plus handcrafted pillows were donated to Gulf Coast Hospital. Staff give these to patients to use under an extremity, behind their back, etc. They are also used for post-op patients and for those suffering from anxiety or memory issues.

Thank You:

A huge thank you to Mr. Nello Papi for his donation of rosary beads and supplies. The rosary ministry was so excited and we shared with Faith Formation. A big thank you to all who have donated fabric and yarn. This is greatly appreciated and we are always in need for more projects.

Our Craftie Support:

Organizations which the group supported this year (from proceeds from the craft fair) include Verity, ACT: Abuse Counseling and Treatment, Inc., Eva's Closet, and pantry and toiletry items for the Villas.

Fall Craft Sale:

Be sure and mark your calendar for November 11 and 12. It will be time for our annual craft sale. The ladies have been busy making handcrafted items. More details to come later.

Join our Ministry:

We LOVE new members! If you can't attend a meeting but would like to contribute somehow we would love to hear from you. Please contact the parish office and we will contact you.

Come and see what you are missing. Weekly attendance is not mandatory.

God Bless to all of you from the Craftie Ladies.

PARISH LIFE CENTER

This series is part of our parish's Adult Faith Formation ministry. We will be showing movies in our Parish Life Center, followed by a discussion of the film. It is an opportunity to meet other parishioners and have a faith-filled discussion on an important topic.

Our next presentation is Stagecoach. This 1939 film follows a group of strangers riding on a stagecoach through dangerous territory. In 1995, the film was deemed "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant" by the United States Library of Congress and selected for preservation in their National Film Registry.

PLEASE RSVP BY MAY 30 so we know how much food to prepare.
