

Mr. Larry's Homework Schedule

Goals are broad and big. Under each goal I would like you to write 3 objectives .
An objective is a steppingstone to reach your goal.

Goals for the year (student)

A) I want to accomplish this with my family:

1. How-
2. How-
3. How-

B) I want to accomplish this in school this year:

1. How-
2. How-
3. How-

C) I want to accomplish this _____ in this Confirmation Class:

1. How-
2. How-
3. How-

Also, during the year, we will cover a multitude of topics that will increase your knowledge of the Catholic faith. I will give you a Goal for each session. You will make up the objectives and finish off each session with a homework assignment. This assignment is to increase your knowledge.

****Parental involvement is encouraged.

(If you know who your sponsor will be, you are encouraged to involve them also.)

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS ARE DUE: ONE WEEK PRIOR TO THE NEXT CLASS.

Session One: Baptismal retreat with Parent(s)

Goal- talking to your Parent(s) about your own Baptism

No written homework, but you will have papers to fill out in your workbook during retreat.

Session Two: Faith/Creed

Goal- to understand the 4 most important words listed

- One: we are one church, wherever you go and see a Catholic Church we are one and the same
- Holy: Founded by Christ the second person of the trinity, God Himself
- catholic: (small c) meaning universal, all around the globe the word and work of God has been going on from the time of Jesus
- Apostolic: we can trace our history of Bishops on a straight line back to the Apostles who were given that right and duty to spread the Word of God.

Written homework: Pick one of the four words and explain what it means to you and how it helps you understand your religion.

Mr. Larry's Homework Schedule

Session Three: Church History

Goal- to understand how the church began, grew, and keeps growing while keeping true to the tenets of the faith.

Written homework: How can I as a high school student help grow the faith in myself and my friends?

Session Four: Eucharist Retreat

Goal- to show you a part of the church and explain it is more than brick and mortar. Also, you will get an in depth view of the Eucharist, with time for contemplation.

Written homework: What makes the Catholic Eucharist special to the Church and me.

Session Five: Why Catholic/How we differ

Goal- to explain how the Catholic Church is the one true Church founded by Christ and note the difference to other religions showing respect.

Written Homework: Why I want to be Catholic (and you cannot say because "my parents said so")

This is your reasons to be Catholic

Session Six: Teaching Mass

Goal- to learn the parts of the Mass and how together they make a beautiful prayer.

Written Homework: I learned this about the Mass today, and it will help me _____ (how).

Session Seven: Defending Your Faith/Apologetics

Goal- Understanding your faith and being able to teach others respectfully explain what you believe.

Written Homework: Defend this statement- I believe the Catholic Church is the One true church because:

Session Eight: Power of Prayer

Goal- to understand, explain and show the different types of Prayer

Written Homework: Write a prayer that has meaning to you and/or family for each of the 3 of the 5 major types of prayer: Petition, Thanksgiving, Intercession