CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

September 21, 2025

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

History

In 1935, the Vatican published On the Better Care and Promotion of Catechetical Education, a document that asks every country to acknowledge the importance of the Church's teaching ministry and to honor those who serve the Christian community as catechists. For the first few years after Catechetical Sunday was established, national catechetical congresses were held in conjunction with the celebration. Beginning in 1971, the USCCB's Department of Education began producing materials to help parishes celebrate the event at the local level. When the Committee on Catechesis, now named the Committee of Evangelization and Catechesis, was named by the Conference as a standing Committee, it continued to publish Catechetical Sunday materials each year. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated the third Sunday in September as Catechetical Sunday.

Meaning

The word might be more familiar than you think. Many Catholics have used the word "catechism" for years, and they know it has something to do with the compendium of the Church's teachings. The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound." Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church.

Recognition

Catechesis is a distinct and special ministry in the Church. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church makes clear, "Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the Church's life . . . her inner growth and correspondence with God's plan depend essentially on catechesis". This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church. It is only fitting that we set aside a day to highlight this ministry and invite the entire church community to think about our responsibility to share our faith with others.

Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes an optional blessing of parents and guardians.

PRAYER FOR Teachers

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of teachers, who dedicate themselves to nurturing young minds and shaping their future. Grant them wisdom to guide their students, patience to navigate daily challenges, and strength to persevere through difficult days. Fill their hearts with passion for their work and surround them with supportive administrators, parents, and colleagues. Lord, remind them of their high calling and the profound impact they have on generations to come. Help us, as a community, recognize their efforts and provide the support they need to thrive. May Your love be the guiding principle in their ministry, empowering them to make a difference every day. Amen.

Those who are new to our parish, or have been attending Mass without being registered, we need your help in staying organized and planning for our future needs. If you have not received a welcome letter, please call the parish office to confirm your registration. All new parishioners or those interested in registering in our parish, are invited to attend the New Parishioner Orientation on Sunday, November 17, 2025 after the 11:15am Mass.

Registering at St. John XXIII is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community. Please let the parish office know your email address or you can even update it on the parish website: www.johnxxiii.net

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate marriage, baptisms or serve as sponsors for confirmation or baptism, request a letter stating that they are parishioners. To receive such a letter, you must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent and treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory basket.

"Always be ready to give an explanation...for a reason for your hope." (1 Pet 3:15)

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

This is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 21. This year's theme is:

"Always be ready to give an explanation... for a reason for your hope" - 1 Peter 3:15

Celebrate Those Who Share Faith:

The Ministry of the Word includes the mission of Evangelization and Catechesis. Catechesis means "to echo." Believers who embrace the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the best news ever proclaimed are eager to "echo" the Good News everywhere. Have you shared your enthusiasm for the Catholic Church with someone recently?

Honor Our Catechesis & Teachers:

The U.S. Bishops have designated today as Catechetical Sunday to honor all those who share in the evangelizing and teaching mission of the Church. At St. John XXIII Parish, we are so grateful for the dedicated ministry of these persons who have accepted the call to catechize other adults, youth and children in our Faith Formation Processes and our Catholic schools.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR PARISH TEAM

Getting to Know

FRANNIE CERNIGLIA

Director of Religious Education

Frannie Cerniglia is a dedicated member of the Parish Team. We thought you would be interested in getting to know her better!

How long have you worked at St. John XXIII?

I have been a volunteer Catechist since 2006, but only began working here in May 2022.

What do you want the parishioners to know about your role within the Church?

My role as Director, is to provide opportunities for the children of our parish to learn about God, our religion and to help form their faith. I also assist families in preparing for their children to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. In addition, I support the Youth Ministry team, led by Kelly Evers, The OCIA Team led by Deacon John & Leslie Robertson and the Adult Faith Formation Team led by Mike Reese.

How does your faith reflect in your Parish work?

I think most people who know me would say that I am dedicated to being a disciple of Jesus. My faith and thirst to learn all that I can about God and the Catholic Religion, coupled with my passion for educating children is what initially led me to this ministry. And I believe it is what continues to drive me to share my faith with anyone I encounter, whether at our parish or anywhere in the community.

How does your job benefit a parishioner?

I believe my role at our parish benefits our parishioners in that I am usually the first call when someone needs answers. Whether the questions pertain to children or faith formation or some other ministry; I am usually able to provide the information they are seeking or at least connect them with someone else at our parish who is able to assist them. My office hours are Sundays 8:30am to 12:30pm and Monday-Thursday 8:30am to 4:00pm. If I can ever be of assistance please do not hesitate to email me at franniedre@johnxxiii.net or call me at 239-561-7499

Planning Your Will

Remember St. John XXIII

A bequest is a wonderful way to express gratitude to God for a lifetime of blessings! The gift you give establishes a lasting legacy of love for others by helping the Church to continue our Catholic heritage through its many ministries.

PLEASE NOTE: Leaving money to the parish in your will is not assessed and 100% goes to the parish.

The following is possible wording for including a bequest in your will:

"I bequeath the greater of $_____ or _____% of the residue of my estate to Bishop Frank J. Dewane, (or his successor), Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida, a corporation sole, whose principal office is located at 1000 Pinebrook Rd., Venice, FL 34285, For the benefit of St. John XXIII Catholic Parish, in Fort Myers, Inc."

The actual wording in your will should be determined by you and your attorney.

For more information, questions, or wish to consider a gift annuity or trust for St. John XXIII Catholic Church, then please email:

Holly Atkins: holly@johnxxiii.net

On Thursday, September 11, we commemorated the 9-11 attacks on our country in the Memorial Garden. We will NEVER FORGET!

MEN'S Gospel FORUM

Welcoming MEN of ALL Ages!

Gospel Forum provides men an opportunity to grow in their faith and deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ. This gathering of men is not a Bible study. The Sunday Scriptures are read aloud, followed by open and meaningful sharing on what the readings mean to us today, as men, and as members of our community. We learn scripture, we pray, we have fellowship, and we laugh a lot! Come as you are, wherever you are in life.

Men's Gospel Forum meets every Monday morning in the PLC/St. Mary/St. Martha from 7:00am to 7:50am.

Untreated mental health conditions can lead to suicide. Too many people experience mental health related distress without the support and care they need. Stressors such as: loss of a job, financial stress, death of a loved one, divorce, substance abuse, trauma, chronic illness, legal troubles, or any cause for shame or rejection can be a trigger. Suicide is now the second leading cause of death in 15-24 year olds and the third leading cause of death for 10-24 year olds. Suicide is the second leading cause of death in veterans under age 45.

We put a lot of effort into knowing the signs of cancer so we can catch it at stage 1. What if we were that diligent about catching mental health disorders early? How many lives might be saved? Some of the warning signs for death by suicide include: hopelessness and anger/irritability; dramatic changes in mood, appetite or sleep patterns; and talking about death or suicide. Don't be afraid to ask your loved one or friend if they have thought about ending their emotional pain by going to sleep and never waking up (soft approach) or have thought about committing suicide (direct approach).

If the answer is yes, stay with them. Tell them you care about them, you don't want to lose them and you think that if they knew of other options for dealing with their pain, they would not consider doing this. Know your local resources and help the person receive professional care. Park Royal Hospital (9241 Park Royal Dr.) offers free walk in evaluations for mental health conditions 24/7. Our Lee County Mobile Crisis Unit (888-395-44320) is an option for in home assessment and referral to mental health services. The National Suicide and Crisis Lifeline is #988 and can offer support by phone until a referral to local resources is achieved. Be the courageous Good Samaritan who sees the need and helps a fellow traveler in life. Be Christ's disciple and spread hope: "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." - John 10:10
